

MISSOURI Business Alert

What is the Weekend Accelerator?

A free weekly email newsletter providing readers with important stories, insights and analysis in the world of entrepreneurship. The newsletter also includes up-and-coming apps and events around Missouri. Arriving in your inbox every Saturday morning, this newsletter is a great way to launch your weekend.

What is Missouri Business Alert?

An online, statewide business news site housed in the Missouri School of Journalism covering a wide range of business topics including technology, government, economic development, startups, entrepreneurship and more.

How does the Weekend Accelerator benefit you?

The Weekend Accelerator helps entrepreneurs stay up-to-date on what is happening around Missouri. This newsletter is full of innovative stories and examples of fellow Missouri entrepreneurs, as well as entrepreneurial events in cities around the state. Not only does this newsletter keep you informed, but it gives you the tools to foster your entrepreneurial skills and grow your business ideas.

How to get the Weekend Accelerator newsletter:

Go to missouribusinessalert.com/accelerator and enter your email to receive the free newsletter. Share this newsletter with coworkers and friends around Missouri by forwarding them a newsletter or sending them to the Missouri Business Alert website. If you have any questions or comments about the newsletter, email info@missouribusinessalert.com with your feedback.

Find Missouri Business Alert on these social platforms:

